DR. C. H. BROWN, in CHARGE.
Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 13, 1893
SAMUEL RICHARDS:
DEAR DOCTOR—I have been much surprised and delighted at the manner in which you have answered the questions. Your examinations were almost perfect. You have proved yourself an exceptionally well educated man and have never yet met with any one who able to answer the questions in the able manner you have done. Wishing you much success which you really deserve, I have the pleasure to return, Yours truly, C. H. BROWN, M. D.
The above letter refers to my third course in lectures in which they were also hundred and seventy-two questions.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and a dark, irregular stain along the right edge. The binding edge on the left is visible, showing the inner hinge and some of the adjacent page.
